

BRITISH LANDED IN NORWAY

Western World Prepared to Use Force in Defense

Preparedness Keynote of F. D.'s Pan-American Talk

A "SECURE PEACE"

Admiral Stark Speaks for Bigger Navy Bill

WASHINGTON —(P)—Termining wars abroad "more horrible and destructive than ever," President Roosevelt said Monday the 21 American republics could keep their eyes open way to eventual peace "only if we are prepared to meet force with force if the challenge is ever made."

Roosevelt spoke before the governing board of the Pan American Union on observance of the organization's 50th anniversary.

He proclaimed the determination of the Western hemisphere "to live in peace and make that peace secure."

Back Big Navy
WASHINGTON —(P)—Admiral Harold Stark testified Monday the effort to enlarge the $550,000,000 naval expansion bill in the face of the "spreading" war abroad would have the "whole hearted support" of the Navy Department.

Convicts Fail in Escape Attempt

Guard Is Wounded in Attempted Break Sunday Night

JEFFERSON CITY —(P)—Four convicts with "an escape complex" were placed in solitary confinement following an attempted break inside the prison walls late Sunday night in which a veteran guard was slightly injured.

The guard, E. N. Larkin of Reynolds county, suffered a slight cut on one leg when three of the four felons, armed with knives and scissors, lunged at him from a place of hiding in the new F and G cell block as he made his rounds. They had sawed their way out of their cells.

Larkin held the men at bay until other guards answered his alarm. The convicts were captured without further resistance.

Deputy Warden Edison Blarg said the men apparently had planned to scale the walls. Search of the cells they occupied disclosed several short lumber cleats and a number of belts they could have used in making a ladder.

Guards also found three half pairs of scissors and two knives the weapons the convicts carried when they attempted to attack Larkin, and makeshift "bullet-proof" prison jackets.

"They had tied magazines inside their jackets, with shoe strings," Blarg said. "Undoubtedly they expected to be shot at."

Leslie Coon, 41-year-old Jasper county convict, "talked freely" with Blarg concerning the attempted break. He was the only one of the four that had been unable to saw his cell bars enough to get into the main hall.

The other escape plotters, all of whom had escaped previously, were identified as Thomas Ford, 39, serving a 20-year sentence from Jackson county for robbery; Joseph Andrews, 35, also received from Jackson county, to serve 20 years on charges of assault with intent to rob, and Marcus Evans, 39, serving 18 years from Randolph county for assault with intent to kill and robbery.

CRANIUM CRACKERS

U. S. Possessions
As a checkup on territorial United States, give the following questions a whirl:

1. Can it truthfully be said that the sun never sets on United States territory?
2. Were the Virgin Islands acquired before or after 1915, and from whom?
3. Who discovered the island of Puerto Rico?
4. Alaska was purchased from what country?
5. What two American-owned Pacific islands are used now as rest stops for trans-Pacific planes?

Answers on Page Two

Glen E. Graham Is Given Promotion

Glen E. Graham, formerly of Hope, will become vice-president in charge of manufacturing at the Sutherland Paper company at Kalamazoo, Mich., on May 1, according to an announcement received here by relatives.

General manager of the Eddy Paper corporation at Three Rivers, Mich. He is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. K. G. McRae of Hope.

In making this announcement, Louis W. Sutherland, president of the Sutherland company, remarked that Graham is one of the outstanding paper-manufacture executives in the nation. The Sutherland company employs 1,700 persons, according to a newspaper clipping received here.

Cotton Cut Goes to Its Far Limit

Further Cut Would Cause Trouble, Says Johnston

HOT SPRINGS —(P)—Oscar Johnston, Scott, Miss., president of the National Cotton Council of America, said here Monday the government "has cut cotton acreage just about as far as possible without a major labor, social and economic disturbance, and chaos."

Johnston, owner of one of the South's largest plantations, spoke before the ninth annual convention of the valley division of the National Cottonseed Products association in a two-day session here.

Texarkana Play Wins First Place

District One-Act Play Contest Held Here Sunday

Four Texarkana, Ark., high school students took first honors for their alma mater Sunday at the Works Projects Administration one-act play contest held at the city hall auditorium here.

The cast of the Arkansas high play winner, "Almost Trouble," is composed of Gertrude Ann Cummings, Hazel Duckworth, George Kelly and Jimmy Schlottman. Mrs. Minnette Fort is the play's director.

Second place went to Monticello high school's "My Lady's Lace," and the third best play, "Elko Solves the Problem," was presented by Camden high school.

The annual district tournament was preliminary to the state meet April 25 at Conway.

The six northern counties of Ireland are part of the United Kingdom, separate from the Free State of Eire.

Parole Is Granted Jarvis, Recipient of 3 Furloughs

Former Hope Cafe Man Now Living at Blytheville

SENTENCED ARSON

Good Record Since His Liberation, Is Cited

LITTLE ROCK —(P)—The State Parole Board granted a parole Monday to Earl Jarvis, Hope, sentenced two years for arson in the burning of a hotel at Ashdown in Little Rock, circuit court last July 11.

Parole officer Jack Porter said a list of about 20 other parolees would be released later Monday.

He reported that the parole for Jarvis was recommended by Chief of Police S. R. Copeland, Hope, and Clarence Wilson, Blytheville, Secretary of the State Police Commission. Sheriff J. G. Sanderson of Little River county, Prosecuting Attorney Byron Gordon and Circuit Judge Minor Milwee said they had no objections to Clemency if Jarvis had made a good record while at liberty on furlough. Porter reported.

Jarvis was released on furlough by Governor Bailey last December. He is now operating a cafe at Blytheville. Several residents of that city in letters to the parole board said he was conducting himself as a law-abiding citizen.

German Officials Reply Roosevelt

Not Guilty of Aggression, Nazi Officials Retort

BERLIN —(P)—German officials, commenting on President Roosevelt's statement condemning the Nazi invasion of Denmark and Norway, asserted that "if Mr. Roosevelt is looking for an aggressor, it is evident he addressed the wrong nation." They contended no country desired more than Germany to localize the war, as it was in her military interest to have a short front.

Mr. Roosevelt Sunday declared that if civilization is to survive the "rights of smaller nations must be respected by their more powerful neighbors."

"The Altmark incident, then the British mine laying in Norwegian territorial waters indicated the enemy has a new conception of neutrality and was defining neutrality so that it could spread the war," the Germans said. "Norwegian neutrality was violated."

(Continued on Page Four)

State Medical Group Convenes Fort Smith

FORT SMITH, Ark. —(P)—Physicians from all sections of the state began arriving here Sunday night for the annual three-day convention of the Arkansas Medical Society which opens here Monday. More than 300 physicians were expected to register for the meeting.

Featured speakers at an open meeting Monday night will be Dr. E. H. Skinner of Kansas City, nationally known for his work in the X-ray field.

The convention will close Wednesday with election and installation of officers, including President-Elect Dr. H. T. Smith of McGehee, Ark. He will succeed President A. S. Buchanan, Prescott physician.

Atkins Faces Two Charges, Smith 1

Deputy Prosecutor Graves Takes Official Action

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Albert Graves has filed charges against Steve Atkins and Otto Smith, both of Hope, as the result of an altercation at Luck's Tourist Court the night of April 7, it was learned Monday.

Atkins faces two charges, assault with a deadly weapon and a charge of disturbing the peace.

Smith faces a charge of disturbing the peace.

Deputy Prosecutor Graves filed the charges last Friday afternoon. Both Atkins and Smith are expected to be arraigned before Municipal Judge W. K. Lemley next Monday morning.

Only three cases were disposed of Monday in municipal court. They were:

Johnny Miller, disturbing the peace, fined $10.

D. D. Walbert, reckless driving, forfeited $25 cash bond.

Norman Lary, drunkenness, forfeited $10 cash bond.

No state cases were heard Monday.

Orton to Represent Military Academy

William R. Orton, Jr., of Hope, will represent the Gulf Coast Military Academy of Gulfport, Miss., in the declamation contest at the district meet to be held in Biloxi, Miss., in the near future.

Mr. Orton won the right to represent his school by winning the school declamation contest.

Chanting is attributed to Amehrose about the year 358.

A Thought

In seeking wisdom thou art wise; in imagining that thou hast attained it thou art a fool.—Rabbi Ben-Ezra.

Peaceful Swedes Don't Want to Fight; But Tough If They Do

Best Guns in the World Trained on an Enemy Invader

Sweden Completely Surrounded by European War

ECONOMIC POWER

But Sweden Today Stands at the Cross-roads

By THOMAS M. JOHNSON
NEA Service Military Writer

Sweden feels like the Light Brigade—cannon to right of her, cannon to left of her. If, believing offense the best defense, she charges for the German guns, then the Russians may open on her—and Sweden blows up in a blaze of glory.

But if she eschews glory and stays in the trenches of neutrality, she may be stifled in a gas attack of totalitarian "protection."

Thus beset, Sweden hesitates on the top. Any moment she may be pushed over that top by German or Russian aggression, or by overwhelming conviction that no matter what the odds—if she would preserve her splendid democratic civilization, she must fight for it while she still has it.

Strategically and economically, Sweden is more powerful than all the other Scandinavian nations combined. Her military is much stronger.

At any moment the success or failure of Germany's invasion of Norway may rest in Sweden's hands. For if British sea power succeeds in cutting off the main German invading forces at Oslo, then—save by air—the Nazis can reinforce and supply those forces only by using Swedish railroads.

Dreads Russia More than Ever
But if Sweden hesitates, it is not because Sweden dreads Germany alone. She dreads Russia more now than ever, with the frontier of her eastern neighbor, Finland, weaker.

The aid Sweden gave Finland in war materials has lowered Sweden's own supplies.

Still, for a nation of 5,250,000, Sweden is surprisingly strong.

Her military manpower is 600,000 to 900,000; her active army 200,000 or more.

Her troops are grouped:

- In a mass of maneuver in the south central portion of the country.
- Against Russia, mainly about the northern fortress of Boden, outside Lulea, protecting the Finnish frontier.

In the southeast, about Stockholm, and on fortified Gotland Island in the Baltic.

Against Germany, mainly at Gotenhburg, whose guns could hamper warships passing out of the Kattegat, and at Malmo where Swedish guns dominate the pinch-waisted Oresund.

Kristianstad, army base, and Karlskrona, naval base, are little over 100 miles from the German naval base at Swinemunde.

Owens World's Best Anti-Air-Craft Guns

Sweden's air force has only 500 planes, but they are of recent German and British manufacture, and her own air industry is beginning to blossom.

But Sweden need depend less upon planes for defense against bombing than any country in the world, for she has the best anti-aircraft guns and more of them.

These are the most famous product of the noted Bofors munition works in northern Sweden near the iron mines.

In three years Bofors has quadrupled output of all sizes of arms.

The anti-aircraft guns alone are so popular that they are sold to 22 different countries.

The best known model is the 40-millimeter, firing 120 to 140 shots a minute.

Bofors also makes anti-tank guns that have proved their excellence in Finland, and another gun, the shell of which is so delicate it can reportedly be exploded by a raindrop.

Thanks to good steel, Bofors also makes the best "tin" hat in Europe and excellent armored cars.

Quality flies, too, from the masthead of the Swedish navy. Unique are its three vest-pocket battleships, displacing only 7000 tons each, the formidable main armament of which includes 11-inch guns, also Bofors-made.

These guns are so accurate they lately astonished American naval officers who saw them fire at one of our targets.

There is also a new-type combined cruiser and aircraft carrier, and there

(Continued on Page Three)

Peaceful Swedes Don't Want to Fight; But Tough If They Do

Best Guns in the World Trained on an Enemy Invader

Sweden Completely Surrounded by European War

ECONOMIC POWER

But Sweden Today Stands at the Cross-roads

By THOMAS M. JOHNSON
NEA Service Military Writer

Sweden feels like the Light Brigade—cannon to right of her, cannon to left of her. If, believing offense the best defense, she charges for the German guns, then the Russians may open on her—and Sweden blows up in a blaze of glory.

But if she eschews glory and stays in the trenches of neutrality, she may be stifled in a gas attack of totalitarian "protection."

Thus beset, Sweden hesitates on the top. Any moment she may be pushed over that top by German or Russian aggression, or by overwhelming conviction that no matter what the odds—if she would preserve her splendid democratic civilization, she must fight for it while she still has it.

Strategically and economically, Sweden is more powerful than all the other Scandinavian nations combined. Her military is much stronger.

At any moment the success or failure of Germany's invasion of Norway may rest in Sweden's hands. For if British sea power succeeds in cutting off the main German invading forces at Oslo, then—save by air—the Nazis can reinforce and supply those forces only by using Swedish railroads.

Dreads Russia More than Ever
But if Sweden hesitates, it is not because Sweden dreads Germany alone. She dreads Russia more now than ever, with the frontier of her eastern neighbor, Finland, weaker.

The aid Sweden gave Finland in war materials has lowered Sweden's own supplies.

Still, for a nation of 5,250,000, Sweden is surprisingly strong.

Her military manpower is 600,000 to 900,000; her active army 200,000 or more.

Her troops are grouped:

- In a mass of maneuver in the south central portion of the country.
- Against Russia, mainly about the northern fortress of Boden, outside Lulea, protecting the Finnish frontier.

In the southeast, about Stockholm, and on fortified Gotland Island in the Baltic.

Against Germany, mainly at Gotenhburg, whose guns could hamper warships passing out of the Kattegat, and at Malmo where Swedish guns dominate the pinch-waisted Oresund.

Kristianstad, army base, and Karlskrona, naval base, are little over 100 miles from the German naval base at Swinemunde.

Owens World's Best Anti-Air-Craft Guns

Sweden's air force has only 500 planes, but they are of recent German and British manufacture, and her own air industry is beginning to blossom.

But Sweden need depend less upon planes for defense against bombing than any country in the world, for she has the best anti-aircraft guns and more of them.

These are the most famous product of the noted Bofors munition works in northern Sweden near the iron mines.

In three years Bofors has quadrupled output of all sizes of arms.

The anti-aircraft guns alone are so popular that they are sold to 22 different countries.

The best known model is the 40-millimeter, firing 120 to 140 shots a minute.

Bofors also makes anti-tank guns that have proved their excellence in Finland, and another gun, the shell of which is so delicate it can reportedly be exploded by a raindrop.

Thanks to good steel, Bofors also makes the best "tin" hat in Europe and excellent armored cars.

Quality flies, too, from the masthead of the Swedish navy. Unique are its three vest-pocket battleships, displacing only 7000 tons each, the formidable main armament of which includes 11-inch guns, also Bofors-made.

These guns are so accurate they lately astonished American naval officers who saw them fire at one of our targets.

There is also a new-type combined cruiser and aircraft carrier, and there

(Continued on Page Three)

High Sea Fleet in Audacious Raid on Narvik Seizes It

British Guns Command Norway's Great Iron Ore Port

NAZIS DISPUTE IT

But Admit Troops May Have Landed Elsewhere

BULLETIN

BUCHAREST, Rumania —(AP)—A Rumanian decree Monday night prohibited indefinitely all exports of wheat, petroleum, coal and wood, thereby cutting off Germany's main source of supplies in southeast Europe.

The government economic council voided all wheat contracts because of a prospective crop failure, and prohibited exports of petroleum, coal and wool until further notice.

LONDON —(P)—Great Britain announced Monday she had landed soldiers at several points in Norway to press the war against the German invaders while her navy forces hurled new bolts at the Nazis in widespread sections in and around Scandinavia. The statement in a joint War Office Admiralty communique capped a week-end crammed with these reports by the British:

Laying of a huge mine barricade across the entire German Baltic coast from Kiel bay to Lithuania.

Torpedoing of the 10,000-ton German battleship Admiral Scheer.

Sinking by British submarines of two German transports, bringing to 12 the toll of transport and supply ships reported sunk in recent days.

The admiralty also said submarines scored four hits on a transport convoy in Skagerrak.

Continued British aerial raids on Stavanger and Bergen.

A British naval squadron, led by the Battleship Warspite, Saturday sank seven German destroyers at Narvik, northern Norwegian coast.

It was reliably stated Prime Minister Chamberlain would make a full statement Tuesday in the House of Commons on British landings in Norway.

Denied by Germans

BERLIN —(P)—German officials asserted Monday no British troops had landed anywhere at Norwegian points occupied by the German forces, either occupied by any other force, else what Germany had established herself, but may have effected a landing elsewhere along Norway's coast of nearly 1,000 miles.

Narvik Captured

STOCKHOLM —(P)—The British forces were reported Monday to have landed at Narvik under the protection of naval shell-fire which drove the Germans from the Northern Norwegian port into the mountainous interior.

The British warships which raided Narvik Saturday, apparently preparing to a landing by British soldiers or marines, were said to have the city under the control of their guns.

This report followed a Norwegian army communique reporting the Norwegian troops north and west of Narvik are ready to attack Germans.

The Norwegian commander said the German forces retreated hastily, and were believed to be incapable of strong resistance to the Norwegian who, he said, are now fully mobilized in the North.

Nazis Admit Blockade

BERLIN —(P)—Germany Monday announced two more Allied submarines had sunk in Skagerrak, a Norwegian torpedo-boat captured, and a German merchant ship sunk by British air raiders at Bergen.

Establishment of a strong British naval blockade of Narvik, important northern Norwegian port was also acknowledged by the Germans, who said their southern forces had "crushed" Norway's attempt to mobilize in the Oslo region.

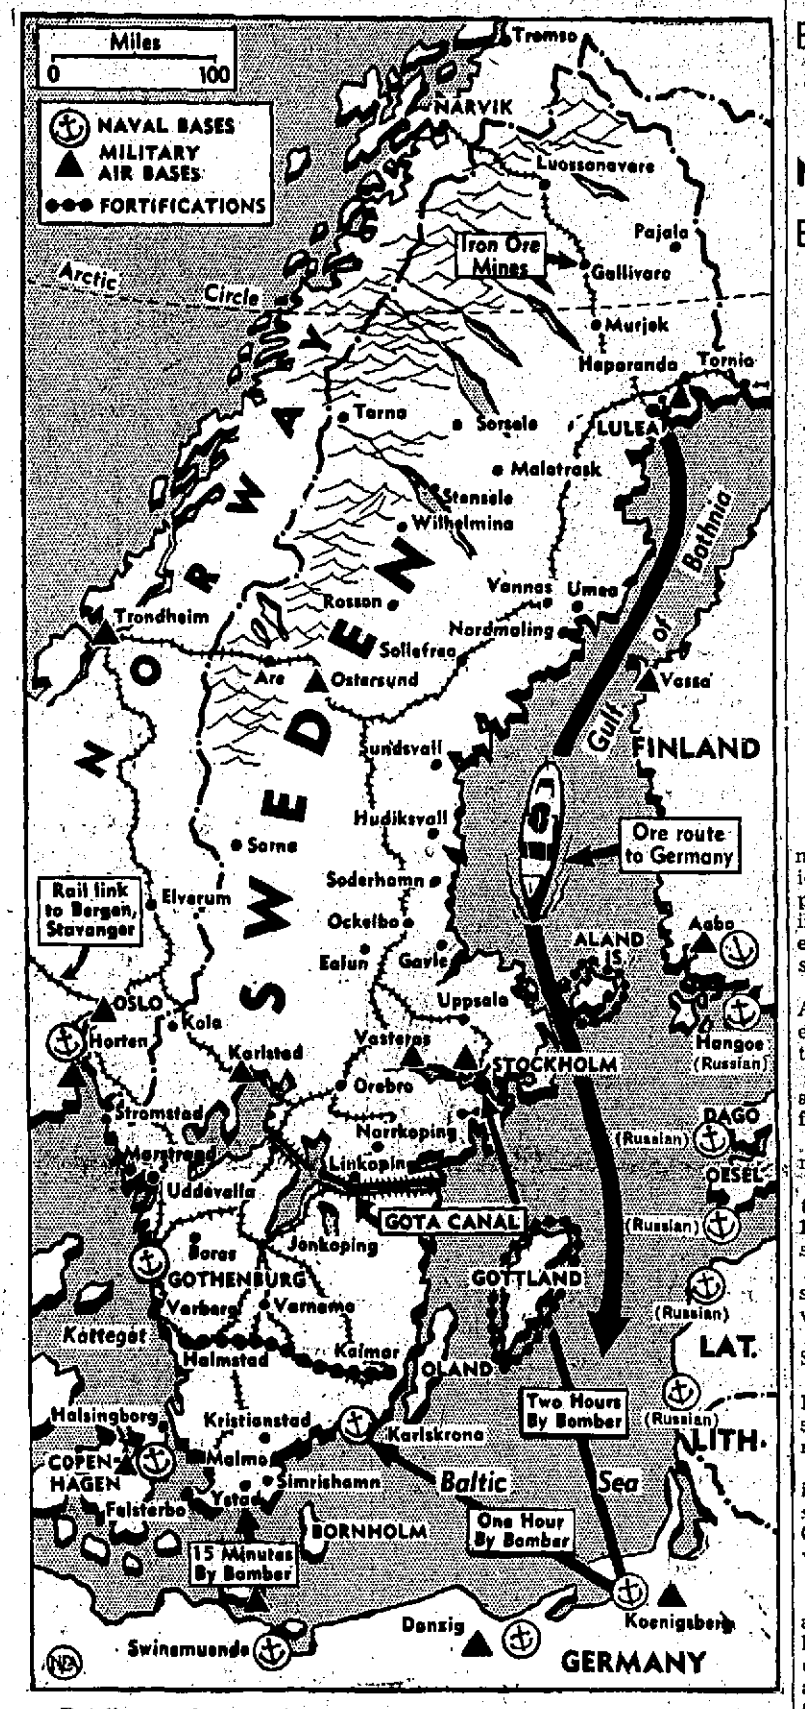

Authorized sources acknowledged contact had been broken between King Haakon and the German minister to Norway.

To save coal, Italian industrialists have authorized a plant to produce methane gas for cooking and heating from sewage and garbage.

Trains operating on gasogene (cholesterol) gas have been installed on Italian state lines. They require 5.3 pounds of charcoal per mile.

COTTON

NEW YORK —(P)—July cotton opened at 10.44 and closed at 10.44. Mid-dling spot 10.89.

Detail map shows main cities, military bases, fortifications, railroads and topography of Sweden.

Total War Begins in Europe's 32nd Week of Conflict

War in Europe is 32 weeks old, but none has seen action like the one just past. Highlights of the week when total war began in the northland are shown on map above.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Sid Henry

Telephone 321

The Search Everlasting

Doubt and wonder as we do.
—E. A. G.

The regular meeting of the Band Auxiliary will be held at the high school Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Forster of Mexico, Texas, will arrive Wednesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Dick Forster.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lewis of Prescott were Sunday guests of friends in the city.

The Cemetery Association held its regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry H. Stuart, East Avenue B. In the absence of the president, the vice president, Mrs. A. F. Hanagan opened the meeting with the Lord's prayer. The nominating committee presented the following new officers: President, Mrs. W. G. Allison; vice president, Mrs. E. E. White; Treasurer, Mrs. E. S. Greening; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank Hearne, recording secretary, Mrs. Edwin Ward. During the business period, reports from the various committees were given, and new committees were announced by the president, and the association voted that monthly meetings would be held on the first Friday at the city hall.

The Members of the Friday Music club were guests of the Musical Society in El Dorado Friday, at which time, the Friday club presented an unusually well directed and selected program. Following a luncheon at the Garrett hotel, the meeting adjourned to the Y. W. C. A. for the following program: Opening with the chorus, "Let All My Life Be Music" by the Choral club, directed by Mrs. M. C. Butler. Miss Marriet Story, Mrs. Basil Edwards, and Mrs. Edwin Stewart, presented a piano Ensemble—Grand Galop Chromatique by Liszt. Misses Mary Louise Keith, Harriet Story and Mrs. Hendrix Sprohngs gave two vocal numbers, "At Parting," by Rogers, and "Trees," by Joyce Kilmer. Mrs. B. C. Hyatt played a piano selection, Valse Brillante by Maria Zucen, followed by an encore. Mrs. Butler presented the Choral club in two more selections "Southern Melody" and "Silent Sea." Following this splendid and well received program, an informal tea was held at the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Surrey Gilliam, one of the many handsome show places in that city.

The marriage of Miss Frances Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kline Snyder to George Sandefur Brandon, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Conyers Brandon of Marshall, Texas, was quietly solemnized Saturday evening, April 13th at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Fred R. Harrison of the Methodist church in Arkadelphia. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nolan of this city, and Brock

Women's "Build-Up"
Women's headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain may be symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, so often relieved by CARDUI. Principal way it helps is by increasing appetite, stimulating flow of gastric juices and so improving digestion and helping to build physical resistance. Another way you may find CARDUI helpful in reducing periodic distress: Take it a few days before and during "the time." Used for 50 years.

OUT OUR WAY

SERIAL STORY

K. O. CAVALIER BY JERRY BRONDFIELD

YESTERDAY: Val tries to thank Eddie for saving her, but he remains cold. She even offers to release him from the crew when the ship makes port. Back in San Francisco, Promoter Sam Golden is trying to explain to sports writers when word comes that Eddie's opponent has sprained his ankle.

CHAPTER XVI

THERE was mild commotion in Sam Golden's office when the promoter made his announcement. They leaped upon him at once. When . . . how bad was Massini hurt . . . would he be able to fight . . . what did the doctor say . . . ?

Sam held up his hands in an effort to stop the torrent of words that were being fired at him. "Boys, boys, give me a chance to breathe," he pleaded. "It's bad. The docs say Massini went and twisted one of them fancy ligaments, or something, and he won't be able to fight for maybe two months."

Sam mopped his bald head again. "And with that advance gate," he moaned, "this is gotta happen to me."

They were relentless. They had to have a story. One of them already had a death clutch on the telephone to call his paper.

"I can't cancel," Sam wailed. "I can't. I'll never get Cavalier here again."

Suddenly he rushed to the phone. "Wait! I got an idea. I'm gonna call the champ. I think I got an out."

SAM was lucky. In five minutes he was talking to the champ's manager in New York. When he was through he slumped back in his seat, completely spent.

"Well, boys, here it is and it's a swell yarn, too. We're bringing in Corky Briggs from Chicago. He's available and in shape. An' what's more, the champ says he'll give Cavalier a whack at him if he beats Briggs."

"Jumping Jupiter!" one of the reporters howled. "Corky Briggs isn't a middleweight any more. He's been fighting as a light-heavy for three months now and he's climbing fast!"

Sam shrugged. "I know it, but what can we do? I ain't got no alternative. So Cavalier'll have to give away eight, nine pounds, or so. It's his business, not mine, if he wants that title shot."

He looked at his watch. "That mud scow of theirs gets into Prince Rupert in a few hours. I'm gonna wire Duffy now he should call me just as soon as he gets ashore. Now screw, you guys, and let me have my headache in peace."

They left him with a rush and Sam Golden reached for the remnants of the bottle of whisky.

SPARKS sent Sam Golden's wire down to Duffy Kelso a couple of hours later.

"Call me immediately you find a telephone," he read out aloud. "That sounds like Sam Golden," Duffy said. "He must be up in the air like a kite, only higher."

Duffy stared at the message again, suspiciously. "I don't like the smell of this," he said.

"Well, the nearest telephone is still three hours away. Meanwhile, keep your blood below the boiling point," Val advised him. "You might want to get up a full head of steam later when you put your call through."

"What's up, do you wonder?" Pop asked her when he got her alone. But Val had no better idea than they did.

It was late afternoon when the Northern Belle nosed slowly up the channel toward Prince Rupert. "Well, be picking up a pilot soon," Val observed. They were leaning against the rail up forward, letting the cool breeze fan back into their faces.

"How long before we dock?" Eddie asked.

"Couple of hours at least." She looked at him sideways. "Can't wait until you rid yourself of us, can you?"

He shrugged and stared at the curling wake of white which speewed away from the bow.

"It was your offer, remember. What do you expect me to do under the circumstances? Duffy probably will weep out of sheer happiness."

He had something there, she admitted to herself. What did she expect? Could there be any earthly reason why he'd give up a quick trip back to San Francisco instead of a four-day voyage.

Was that what she wanted? That was a troublesome thought, too. She stole a glance at the dark, rugged profile beside her. There was something slightly incongruous about it. That sensitive mouth, maybe. Eddie Cavalier didn't have the mouth you'd expect to find on a boxer. Strange she should be catching herself thinking of little things like that.

Brandon served his brother as best man. The bride was lovely in her wedding gown, a costume suit of Golden Wheat crepe, with Aqua accessories. Her corsage was of sweet heart roses. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Brandon left for El Dorado, where they will reside. Luther Hollamon played "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," during the ceremony.

RIALTO

Starts TUESDAY

John Garfield
Priscilla Lane

"DUST BE MY DESTINY"

— and —
Fred MacMurray
Mareline Carroll

"HONEYMOON IN BALI"

The bride was the honoree at a number of lovely pre-nuptial parties. A lovely gift tea, given by Mrs. L. W. Young, Mrs. E. P. Stewart and Mrs. Dick Forster. Mrs. Chas Haynes at the home of Mrs. Young. An evening bridge at the home of Mrs. Billy Bob Herndon, with Mrs. R. V. Herndon Sr., and Mrs. R. D. Franklin as associate hostesses and a Kitchen Shower at the home of Mrs. W. M. Reeves, with Miss Josephine Reeves as joint hostess.

The Woodmen Circle will meet at 7:30 Tuesday evening at the Woodmen Hall. All members are urged to be present.

Ladies Auxiliary of the United Baptist church will hold a social meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. C. Kennedy 222 West Sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Darwin were hosts at a very delightful dinner Sunday evening at their attractive country home on the Washington Road. The occasion was a joint birthday celebration of Mrs. H. E. Redding and Mr. Darwin. The rooms were bright with spring flowers, and pink roses centered the dining table where covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Redding, daughter Ed Wene, Miss Mildred Brown and Miss Virginia Dalton, all of Texarkana and Mr. and Mrs.

By J. R. Williams

Mrs. Etta Sharp Dies at Prescott

PRESCOTT — Mrs. Etta Sharp, 68, widow of Henry Sharp, resident of Prescott for 45 years, died at her home here Sunday. She is survived by seven daughters, Mrs. Lena Smith, Mrs. Effie Scott and Mrs. John A. Williams of Texarkana, Mrs. Bill Ursey of Arcadia, La., Mrs. Lorene Wynn, Mrs. Omazelle Wood and Mrs. Cora Peachy of Prescott, and two sons, H. G. of Stuttgart and Hiram Sharp of Lufkin, Tex. Funeral services will be conducted here Monday afternoon.

Best Guns in the

(Continued From Page One)

are seven smaller cruisers and 10 each of submarines and destroyers of varying ages and values.

This navy, aided by many mines now being laid along the coast, is Sweden's first line of defense.

The second line is strong coastal defenses, notably at Gothenburg, Kristanstad, Karlskrona, Stockholm. Would fight with "One Foot in Water"

The Swedish army, under Lieut. Gen. Loernell, is believed planning to fight invaders ferried over from Germany "with one foot in the water," then to withdraw to a so-called "Maginot Line" from Halmstad to Kalmar.

A second natural position of lakes and the Gota Canal exists farther north.

All these defenses might be turned by German invasion from Oslo; but Sweden's terrain offers many natural obstacles in rivers, lakes and forest.

Josef Hofmann, the pianist, was an accomplished musician at the age of seven.

Saenger Theater — Tuesday and Wednesday

It's Joan Bennett's alluring beauty which captivates George Raft and starts an exciting romance in Walter Wanger's "The House Across the Bay."

Musical Programs at Unity Baptist

A spokesman for the Unity Baptist church, South Elm Street, announced Monday that singing and musical programs would be held each Tuesday night at the church for the next several weeks. All quartets and singers are invited to participate.

CARD OF THANKS

To all who expressed sympathy and comfort by kind words, deeds, and beautiful flowers, at the loss of our beloved husband and father, we extend our heartfelt thanks.

The family of Sam Nesbitt.

Monday "Broadway Melody of 1940"

TUES. — WED.

Matinee Tuesday

He made her LIVE DANGEROUSLY

A story of turbulent love . . . bringing together the emotional intensity of George Raft and the smoldering beauty of Joan Bennett.

Walter Wanger presents
GEORGE RAFT JOAN BENNETT

The HOUSE ACROSS the BAY

with LLOYD NOLAN GLADYS GEORGI and WALTER PIDGEON
Directed by Archie Mayo

Released thru United Artists

FOR EVENING
SPLENDOR . . .

98c

2-THREAD PHOENIX hosiery

Wispy sheer . . . caressing fit . . . soft glowing dullness — a luxurious stocking for glamorous wear. These delicate sheers are specially treated by Phoenix for long wear. In flattering new Personality colors,

"SUNNY"
— clear peach-gold
suntan shade,
DOUBLE
"RACY"
— start clear
copper shade,
DOUBLE
Vita-Bloom
PROCESSED

We Give Eagle Stamps The Leading Department Store
Geo. W. Robison & Co.
HOPE NASHVILLE

AMERICA'S BUSIEST CIGARETTE

Chesterfield goes to bat with the World Champion Line-up

Definitely Milder
Cooler-Smoking
Better-Tasting

... these are the three good qualities that every smoker wants and every smoker gets in Chesterfield. That's because Chesterfields are made of the world's best tobaccos, blended in the right combination.

You can't buy a better cigarette.

"The Yankees," says JOE MCCARTHY, "win championships because they're good in the box, at bat and in the field." . . . CHESTERFIELDS win more smokers every day because they're tops for cooler smoking, better taste and real mildness.

Chesterfield

Today's DEFINITELY Milder, Cooler-Smoking, Better-Tasting Cigarette

Copyright 1940, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

LOGS WANTED

OAK
and
SWEET GUM

For specifications etc.
Apply to:

Hope Heading Company
Phone 245

